

Privacy Policy

This is an easy English version of the Learning Links Privacy Policy

The Privacy Policy is about how we use your family's private information and keep it safe.

Learning Links respects your privacy and follows laws about how we collect, store, and share private information.

This document will tell you:

- How we collect information
- Why we keep your information
- What information we keep
- How we obtain your permission
- When and how we share your information
- How we store your information
- When and what information we send you
- How you can make a complaint

How we collect information

We collect information from you and your family in different ways:

- You give us information in person during services, by phone, or in writing
- Others may give us information about you

Why we keep your information

We keep your personal information because it:

- to your family.
- Helps us to communicate with you.

What information we keep

We only keep the information we need to support your family.

This information could be:

- Your name and your child's name
- Where you live
- Your child's birthday
- Information about your child's health or disability
- A photo

How we obtain your permission

You need to give permission for us to tell others your information.

A screenshot of a document titled "Learning Links Service Agreement". The document is a form for a service agreement under the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS). It includes fields for "On behalf of:", "NDIS No:", "Plan Start Date:", and "Date of Birth:". Below these fields, it says "AND Learning Links ABN: 71 087 677 838 (Provider)". At the bottom, it states "The NDIS and this Service Agreement" and "This Service Agreement will commence on 01/01/2019 for the period to 31/03/2020". The document is dated "July 2019" and has a reference number "LH7121".

You give us permission to collect, store, and share your information when you sign your Service Agreement.

You can choose not to give us permission to collect, store and share personal information.

You can change your mind at any time about the personal information you share with us.

We will only give others your information without your permission if:

- The law says we must, or
- It will keep you safe.

When and how we share your information

Only the staff who support your family access your information.

Our staff keep your information confidential and only share or discuss your private information when it is necessary to support your family.

We might need to tell other people about you so that they can help you.

We may need to share your information with NDIS to help with your child's NDIS plan.

How we store your information

Your information is confidential and stored securely on locked computers or in locked filing cabinets and in secure environments.

Information is not left on desks for people to see.

When and what information we send you

From time to time, we might send you information about Learning Links and our programs.

If you do not want to receive information from us email marketing@learninglinks.org.au and let us know.

How you can make a complaint

If you want to make a complaint about how we have used your information, you can:

- Email us at feedback@learninglinks.org.au
- Speak to a Learning Links' staff member by calling 1300 003 900
- Use the Contact Us form on our website
- Contact the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission at www.ndiscommission.gov.au
- Contact the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner at www.oaic.gov.au

Australian Government
Office of the Australian
Information Commissioner